

ESL – LESSON 6 PRACTICE 1.1

Learn English Basics

Verbs that look like Nouns

Some words can be both a verb and a noun

Brain Fueled

Look at the list of nouns in the box below. They are also all, incredibly, verbs. Let's Practice! Try to select the correct words to complete and fill the sentences.

sand	picture	man	radio
log	screen	pen	father
hand	shoulder	chair	water

1. Try and _____ what the house will be like once the builders have finished.
2. Mr. Winston will _____ this meeting as our usual president is ill today.
3. Can you come over and _____ my plants for a few weeks while I am on my honeymoon?
4. Can you help me with these leaflets Carl? I have to _____ one to every woman who is with a child.
5. This wall is too rough. We will have to _____ it down before we can paint it.
6. We have to _____ the arrival and departure of every person. Then the list gets sent up to security every evening.
7. We have to _____ everyone coming to work for us due to security considerations.
8. A male wolf can _____ up to 200 cubs in its lifetime.
9. The snow is getting really heavy now. I think we should _____ for help down in the valley.
10. Why don't you _____ a letter to your father seeing as you have a spare twenty minutes.
11. Captain, how many men will _____ the lifeboats if the ship sinks?
12. The new job means a lot more money but I will have to _____ a lot more responsibility too.